Kettering Police Join Effort in Community Day of Service

Kettering- Saturday, April 25 Kettering Police Officers along with Partners For Healthy Youth and several other community clubs and churches will be volunteering their time and effort in Kettering's Community Day of Service. Hundreds of adults and youth will be washing cars and helping local homeowners with yard maintenance at several locations to raise money for the "Good-to-Go Backpack Program." The program provides food items to children in need within the community.

Car wash locations will be at LaRosa's Pizzeria, 2801 Wilmington Pike, Emmanuel Lutheran Church, 4865 Wilmington Pike, Christ United Methodist Church, 3440 Shroyer Rd. and Parkview Church of the Nazarene, 4701 Far Hills Avenue. Members of the community can make a monetary donation or contribute canned goods at the car wash locations between 9:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Several teams of youth and adults will be at different residential properties around the city helping homeowners with yard maintenance and minor repairs. The homeowners have been selected because they may face challenges and need the assistance.

Kettering Youth Council has been very instrumental in planning this day of service. The day is a wonderful opportunity for community organizations and clubs to build lasting relationships with the youth while benefiting the "Good-to-Go Backpack Program" and the property owners.

The Kettering Police Department looks forward to the day of service and interacting with the youth for such a positive cause. Media Outlets may contact Ptl. Michael Burke at 657-7280 for coverage at property sites.
