Early Morning Call Leads to Arrest

Kettering- David R. Winters, age thirty-six of Kettering was placed under arrest for Theft and Disorderly Conduct at approximately 3:45 a.m. on June 15.

A resident in the area of Montgomery Square and Renee Drive called KPD with a description of Winters and stated he was breaking into a parked vehicle. When officers arrived, they found Winters leaning inside a vehicle. Winters stated that he was looking inside the vehicle; however, he did not know who the owner was. It was evident to the officers that Winters was intoxicated.

The owner of the vehicle was contacted and found that the in dash car stereo had been stolen.

Winters was booked into the Kettering Jail for Theft and Disorderly Conduct-Public Intoxication. Winters has a lengthy history of theft offenses and convictions.
