Suspect Arrested, Felonious Assault on Norton

Kettering- Michael D. Saunders Jr., 22, of Wilmington Avenue in Dayton was arrested on a Felonious Assault warrant last evening.

Saunders was allegedly involved in an early afternoon disturbance on November 15 in front of 1524 Norton Avenue. He reportedly fired several shots from a handgun in the direction of the victim who was inside a vehicle on Norton. Officers recovered spent cartridges in the street and front yard area of the residence after several neighbors called 911. All involved parties had left the scene prior to the officers arrival. Nobody was injured during the incident.

In addition to the charge of Felonious Assault, Saunders is charged with Felony counts of Tampering with Evidence and Discharge of a Firearm on or near a Prohibited Premises. Saunders is being held at the Kettering Jail.

A booking photo of Saunders may be obtained by contacting Ptl. Michael Burke at 296-2458.
