Court Security Officer Receives Commendation

Kettering- Don McCuiston, a Kettering Police Department Court Security Officer was presented a Class I commendation for performing chest compressions on an inmate after he collapsed January 29, 2010.

James T. Brown, age thirty-four; complained of severe chest pains and fell face down in the holding cell area of the Kettering Municipal Court. Brown was not breathing and had no pulse. C.S.O. McCuiston performed chest compressions for two minutes until Brown regained consciousness. Kettering Fire Department medics then transported Brown to Kettering Hospital.

A Class I award is presented for an act evidencing highly professional conduct or performance or giving evidence of selfless conduct during a time of crisis or emergency.

Kettering Police are trained and re-certified in CPR every two years.
