Cops and Kids Camp

Kettering- The Kettering Police Department along with the city's parks and recreation department is holding the annual Cops and Kids Camp this week at Indian Riffle Park, 2801 E. Stroop Rd., Kettering. The day camp will begin Tuesday and conclude Friday, July 3. Hours are 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.

Several sporting and team activities will be available for elementary school aged children. Camp counselors will be youth who are performing community service projects as directed by the juvenile court for very minor offenses.

As part of a community oriented policing effort, the police department will be overseeing the camp and acting as mentors to the counselors and campers.

The camp is made possible through a collaborative effort between Kettering Partners for Healthy Youth, the City of Kettering Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts Department and Kettering Police.

Local media are invited to visit the camp during the hours of operation and may contact Ptl. Michael Burke.
