Midnight Mischief on Powhattan Place

Kettering- On July 7, seven residents on Powhattan Place discovered their vehicle tires deflated. The vehicle owners were left with inconvenience but no damage to the tires or vehicles.

All seven vehicles were parked on the street when they were tampered with during the early morning hours.

The Kettering Police Department is hoping that somebody in the area may have witnessed the mischief or has information that will assist in the investigation.

Anyone with information is asked to please call the Detective Section of the Kettering Police Department at 296-2584.
